

Samer Abou-Jaoudé

Managing Director, Claims Solutions, Continental Europe

Samer Abou-Jaoudé is the managing director for Verisk Claims Solutions in continental Europe. He previously served as deputy managing director after joining Verisk in 2022 as a senior adviser.

Samer's many years in management and leadership roles with regional and multinational companies have focused on integrating and profitably growing businesses in established and start-up environments.

Samer has over 23 years of global insurance experience in Europe and emerging markets. Before joining Verisk, he served as group general manager for Arabia Insurance and prior to that he held senior positions at AXA, Gen Re, and Zurich Insurance.

Samer holds an MBA from the Ecole Nationale d'Assurances in Paris, and an MA in international affairs and a BA in political science/international affairs, both from the Lebanese American University.