

Verisk's EHR Triage Engine

It may be possible for most life applicants to have an underwriting decision with no physical and no manual review of their electronic health records (EHRs).

The EHR Triage Engine from Verisk can automatically evaluate EHRs in real-time to enable straight-through processing for the majority of applicants.

How It Works

